Details: West Linn's Willamette Park is a hidden jewel to be seen. Where the Willamette and Tualatin rivers meet, the park offers something for kids of all ages. Community involvement will make this the art show to see. The West Linn high school student art show will host a silent auction. With one of a kind art generously donated by our featured artists. In 2009 the West Linn's Art Festival raised $2000.00 that was donated to the high schools art department. Come bid on the art and support our kids! 2010 will offer activities for kids of all ages. In 2009 the Festival was a great success, held in Willamette Park it is the perfect setting for your family and friends to come for the art and stay for the day!

 A parking shuttle service will run in the local area every few minutes, all weekend to deliver you directly to the park and return you to your vehicle. Also an art pick up point will be located at the information booth at the entrance to the park. Drive right up and pick up your artwork. Cost: Admission to the festival is free Volunteers are needed.....it is fun and rewarding!
